

In Search of the Biblical Jesus

The Christological Heresies

The Ebionites (@ 70 - 300 AD)

- Jews seeking to Judaize Christianity
- Jesus
 - the physical son of Mary and Joseph
 - fulfilled the Mosaic law
 - God chose him to be the Messiah.
 - became conscious of this at his baptism
- Ebionism – denies the deity of Christ.
- Denial caused by "its incompatibility with monotheism."
- Refuted throughout the New Testament.

The Gnostics

- Primarily a gentile perversion
- The rationalism of the early church
- Gnosis = higher knowledge
- Basic tenet is dualism:
 - Spiritual world (Gr., pleroma) is good.
 - Material world (Gr., kenoma) is evil.
 - Since flesh is evil, God could not become flesh.
- Their solutions:
 - 1. Cerinthian Gnosticism: the divine Christ came upon the human Jesus at his baptism and departed shortly before his death.
 - 2. Docetic Gnosticism (Gr., dokeo, to seem or appear): Jesus only had the appearance of flesh.
- Denies the humanity of Christ.
- Compare the scriptural teaching: Col. 1:15-18; 2:9; 1 John 4:2-6; 2 John 7.

The Arians (early 4th century)

- Arius was a proud, ambitious, and argumentative man.
- Arianism
 - Christ existed before all "other" creatures.
 - Christ was the agent God used to fashion the world
 - He Himself was created.
- Their theological argument: "The opposite view is unreasonable and irreconcilable with monotheism and God's dignity."
- Answer: The scriptural data reveals the doctrine of the Trinity.
 - I. Christ is God.
 - II. There is one God.
 - III. Christ is distinct from the Father.

The Arians (early 4th century)

- Their scriptural arguments:
 - Proverbs 8
 - The early church interpreted as Christological.
 - The Septuagint translates the Hebrew word in verse 22 with the Greek word ktizo, meaning "created."
 - Answers:
 - The Hebrew word can be translated "acquire," "buy," and "possess," but not "create."
 - Wisdom is speaking, not Christ. It is created.

The Arians (early 4th century)

- Their scriptural arguments
 - Colossians 2:15
 - Christ is the "firstborn of creation."
 - Arians argue must mean Christ was created.
 - Answers:
 - Other biblical usages of this Greek word
 - E.g., Psalm 89:27 uses the word firstborn parallel to a phrase underscoring preeminence not birth order.
 - Jewish literature
 - Rabbi Bechai described Jehovah as "the firstborn of the world."
 - The context
 - The context focuses on Christ's preeminence.

The Arians (early 4th century)

- Arianism – denies the full deity of Christ
 - first of the created beings
 - a god but not the god
- In 325 A.D. the Nicean Council rejected Arianism as heresy, proclaiming Christ to be of one substance with the Father.

The Apollinarians

- Apollinarius first proposed this view.
- Man is composed of three parts:
 - Spirit
 - Soul
 - Body
- Christ had a human soul and body, but the divine Logos took the place of the human spirit.
- Apollinarianism – deny full humanity
 - the divine Logos took the place of the human spirit in Christ
 - the divine Logos took only the material part of human nature.
- The Council of Constantinople (381 A.D.) condemned this heresy.

The Nestorians

- Nestorius, the patriarch of Constantinople, first proposed this view.
- Christ consisted of two natures and two persons.
- The divine Logos indwelt the human Jesus.
- Nestorianism
 - denies the unity of two natures in one person
 - divides Christ into two persons, one human & one divine.
- The Synod of Ephesus (431 A.D.) condemned this teaching.

The Eutychians

- Eutychians are "monophysites" (one nature).
- They teach that Christ had only a divine nature.
- Eutychianism
 - fails to distinguish properly between the two natures;
 - Jesus had only one nature
- The Council of Chalcedon (451 A.D.) condemned this doctrine.

Dr. A. P. Peabody

"The canon of infidelity was closed almost as soon as that of the Scriptures. Modern unbelievers have for the most part repeated the objections of their ancient predecessors."

The Chalcedon Statement

- The Council of Chalcedon (451 A.D.)
- "Following, then, the holy fathers, we unite in teaching all men to confess the one and only Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. This selfsame one is perfect both in deity and in humanness; this selfsame one is also actually God and actually man, with a rational soul [i.e., human soul] and a body. He is of the same reality as God as far as his deity is concerned and of the same reality as we ourselves as far as his humanness is concerned; thus like us in all respects, sin only excepted.

The Chalcedon Statement

- "Before time began he was begotten of the Father, in respect of his deity, and now in these "last days," for us and behalf of our salvation, this selfsame one was born of Mary the virgin, who is God-bearer in respect of his humanness.

The Chalcedon Statement

- "We also teach that we apprehend this one and only Christ—Son, Lord, only-begotten—in two natures; and we do this without confusing the two natures, without transmuting one nature into the other, without dividing them into two separate categories, without contrasting them according to area or function.

The Chalcedon Statement

- "The distinctiveness of each nature is not nullified by the union. Instead, the "properties" of each nature are conserved and both natures concur in one "person" and in one reality [hypostasis]. They are not divided or cut into two persons, but are together the one and only and only-begotten Word [Logos] of God, the Lord Jesus Christ. Thus have the prophets of old testified; thus the Lord Jesus Christ himself taught us; thus the Symbol of Fathers [the Nicene Creed] has handed down to us.

 - Son of Abraham (Matt. 1:1)
 - Son of David (Matt. 1:1)

Philippians 2:5-8

- “But he emptied Himself”
- Emptied himself of what?
- Primarily 2 wrong views:
 - The kenotic view
 - gave up certain divine attributes, especially omniscience, omnipresence, and omnipotence
 - a denial of the deity of Christ
 - if at any moment in time or eternity, Christ became anything less than God is, he ceased to be God.
 - Cf. Heb. 13:8—Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.
 - During his earthly life, Christ exercised omnipresence (John 1:47-48), omniscience (John 2:24-25; 16:30), and omnipotence in his many miracles.
 - The view of Anselm: Christ acted like he did not possess any divine attributes.

The Incarnation

- In the incarnation, Christ emptied himself in two specific ways:
 - He veiled His pre-incarnate glory (John 17:5)
 - He voluntarily restricted the use of some of his divine attributes.
- Kenoo [ken ah' oh]
 - KJV: “he made himself of no reputation.”
 - NIV: “he made himself nothing.”
 - Often used in secular Greek to describe pouring something out.
 - A simple metaphor: Christ poured himself out.

“He Emptied Himself”

- Taking the form of a bond-servant (7b)
- Being made in the likeness of men (7b)
 - The similarity = full complete humanity
 - United himself to an un-glorified humanity.
 - Became everything that we are.
 - He was subject to temptation, trouble, weakness, pain, sorrow, and every human limitation.
 - The difference:
 - 1) Rom. 8:3—God sent His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, [yet without sin].
 - 2) He never ceased to be equal with God.

“He Emptied Himself”

- Being found in appearance as a man (8a)
 - Born in the usual way (Gal. 4:4);
 - Had a physical body (Col. 1:22);
 - Grew up in a family—he was the oldest of at least seven children;
 - Had human parents who cared for him (Luke 2:40-51);
 - Grew and developed as other children do (Luke 2:52);
 - Probably worked from at least 13-30 in Joseph's business;
 - Got hungry, thirsty, tired, needed sleep, and felt pain;
 - Experienced external solicitations to sin (Heb. 4:15);
 - Died (Heb. 2:17).
