

The Implications of Paul's Conversion...

Why Romans Matters (Pt. 2)

Romans 1:1-7

I. Because Paul Wrote It (1)

A. His Identity (1)

- The Early Years in Tarsus (Acts 22:3; cf. Phil. 3:5)
- The Years in Jerusalem (Acts 22:3; cf. Phil. 3:5)
- Paul the Persecutor (Acts 7:58; 8:1-2; Acts 22:3-5; 26:9-11)
- Paul: A Slave of Christ Jesus (Acts 9:1-17; Rom. 1:1)

The Implications of Paul's Conversion...

- 1) It underscores the sovereignty of God in salvation.
- 2) It reminds us that God can save anyone.
- 3) It is a powerful testimony to the historical fact of the resurrection.
- 4) It underscores the transforming power of the gospel.
