II. What We Affirm about Creation

- A. God personally created all things out of nothing (ex nihilo) by divine fiat.
- B. God immediately or directly created all kinds, and each kind reproduces solely after its kind.
- C. God created the heavens and the earth relatively recently.
- D. God created all things in six literal, consecutive, 24-hour days.

The Biblical Evidence for Six, 24-hour Days

- 1) The normal meaning of the Hebrew word for day (yom).
- 2) The direct statement of Moses in Ex. 20:11.
- 3) The use of the word “day” with “night.”
- 4) The expression "morning & evening."
- 5) The use of an ordinal number with the word day.
- 6) The absence of the Hebrew word for age.
- 7) The reason for a creation week.
