

The Sufficiency of Scripture in Sanctification

Selected Scripture

CBC Distinctive

“We believe that God has provided us in the Scripture with everything necessary to nurture and sustain spiritual life. That means we are committed to teaching and to counseling directly and exclusively from the Word of God. We do not believe that secular psychology has any legitimate role in the sanctification of the believer.”

The Sufficiency of Scripture in Sanctification

Selected Scripture

- I. What We Deny about the Means of Sanctification
- II. What We Affirm about the Means of Sanctification
 - A. All man’s problems are physical, spiritual, or a combination.
 - B. In the Scripture, God has provided the believer with everything necessary to create, sustain, and nurture spiritual life.

The Sufficiency of Scripture in Sanctification

Selected Scripture

The Sufficiency of Scripture in Sanctification

Selected Scripture

II. What We Affirm about the Means of Sanctification

- C. For the Christian, the Spirit produces real spiritual change only through our understanding, applying, and obeying the Scripture.
- D. Ultimately, Christ Himself is our Counselor.